The provision of paragraph 50 of these regulations shall not therefore apply in such cases.

112. The following instructions will be substituted for those contained in paragraph 70 :—

If a man in the reserve fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear at the time and place at which he is required to attend when called out on permanent service, the officer to whom the reservist should have reported, will, at the expiration of 14 days from the date of such failure fill in and sign a certificate on Army Form D 458 and will forward it, together with the man's attestation paper, to the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area.

The Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area will make an entry of the absence in a book to be kept for the purpose, and will attach Army Form D 458 to the man's attestation paper; he will also cause the man's name to be advertised in the Police Gazette as an absentee in the manner described in King's Regulations regarding deserters.

No. 1665, Corporal Alfred Alexander Burt, 1st Bn.
 Hertfordshire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For most conspicuous bravery at Cuinchy on 27th
 September, 1915.

His company had lined the front trench preparatory to an attack when a large minenwerfer bomb fell into the trench. Corporal Burt, who well knew the destructive power of this class of bomb, might easily have got under cover behind a traverse, but he immediately went forward, put his foot on the fuse, wrenched it out of the bomb and threw it over the parapet, thus rendering the bomb innocuous.

His presence of mind and great pluck saved the lives of others in the traverse.

No. 9730, Private John Caffrey, 2nd Bn. The York and Lancaster Regiment.

For most conspicuous bravery on 16th November, 1915, near La Brique.

A man of the West Yorkshire Regiment had been badly wounded and was lying in the open unable to move in full view of and about 300 to 400 yards from the enemy's trenches. Corporal Stirk, Royal Army Medical Corps, and Private Caffrey at once started out to rescue him, but at the first attempt they were driven back by shrapnel fire. Soon afterwards they started again under close sniping and machine-gun fire, and succeeded in reaching and bandaging the wounded man, but, just as Corporal Stirk had lifted him on Private Caffrey's back, he himself was shot in the head.

Private Caffrey put down the wounded man, bandaged Corporal Stirk and helped him back into safety. He then returned and brought in the man of the West Yorkshire Regiment. He had made three journeys across the open under close and accurate fire, and had risked his own life to save others with the utmost coolness and bravery.

No. S/107, Corporal Alfred George Drake, 8th Bn The Rifle Brigade (Prince Consort's Own).

For most conspicuous bravery on the night of 23rd November, 1915, near La Brique, France.

He was one of a patrol of four which was reconnoitring towards the German lines. The patrol was discovered when close to the enemy, who opened heavy fire with rifles and a machine gun, wounding the Officer and one man. The latter was carried back by the last remaining man. Corporal Drake remained with his Officer and was last seen kneeling beside him and bandaging his wounds regardless of the enemy's fire.

Later, a rescue party crawling near the German lines found the Officer and Corporal, the former unconscious

A.O. 57 but alive and bandaged, Corporal Drake beside him 1916 dead and riddled with bullets. He had given his own

No. 1147, Corporal Samuel Meekosha, 1/6th Bn.
 West Yorkshire Regiment, Territorial Force.

For most conspicuous bravery near the Yser on 19th November, 1915.

He was with a platoon of about 20 non-commissioned officers and men, who were holding an isolated trench.
 During a very heavy bombardment by the enemy six of the platoon were killed and seven wounded, while all the remainder were more or less buried.

When the senior non-commissioned officers had been either killed or wounded Corporal Meekosha at once took command, sent a runner for assistance, and, in spite of no less than ten more big shells falling within 20 yards of him, continued to dig out the wounded and buried men in full view of the enemy and at close range from the German trenches. By his promptness and magnificent courage and determination he saved at least four lives.

The foregoing appeared in the London Gazette, dated 22nd January, 1916.
